

Jewish Heritage Education and Advocacy Center

OUR MISSION

Based in Florida, the Jewish Heritage Education and Advocacy Center carries the message of the Jewish Museum of Chile across North America.

By bringing memory to life through traveling exhibits, educational programs, and partnerships, we confront antisemitism and anti-Zionism, and celebrate the richness of Jewish heritage.

PROJECTIONS 2025 - 2028

- 1 Create and deliver impactful educational content on the Holocaust and Jewish culture.
- 2 Forge partnerships with U.S. museums and educational institutions.
- 3 Bring the traveling exhibit "It Was No Game" (Soccer during the Holocaust) for the 2026 FIFA World Cup, to stadiums and schools.
- 4 Connect philanthropists with the Jewish community in Chile, fostering partnerships that sustain and expand our museum programs.
- 5 Represent the Center at key fundraising events and institutional forums.

TRAVELING EXHIBIT

"IT WAS NO GAME"

JEWISH MUSEUM OF CHILE
DALIA POLLAK GUIDING
THE HOLOCAUST EXHIBITION

ABOUT DALIA POLLAK

- Executive director of Jewish Heritage Education and Advocacy Center
- Co-founder & President, Jewish Museum of Chile Foundation.
- Daughter of a Romanian-born Holocaust survivor and an Israeli mother; deeply committed to memory, Jewish continuity, and Zionism.
- Resides in the U.S. under an O-1 visa for extraordinary ability in education.
- A leading voice in Jewish education across Latin America, transforming the way Jewish values engage with broader audiences through a participatory, human-centered approach.
- Established partnerships with ADL and USC Shoah Foundation; founder of Red LAES (Latin American Network for Holocaust Education).
- Serves on the Advisory Council of JOTA at Brandeis University; member of ICOM (International Council of Museums).
- Member of the Board of the Israeli Film Festival Seret – Chile Chapter.

Interested in joining this global educational mission?

Become a partner, host institution, or sponsor to help bring history, memory, and the fight against hate to new audiences across the United States and beyond.

daliapollak@jheacenter.com